Dear Mr. Chapman,

I suppose you have heard from Mrs. Earle of Worcester about goods for the Worcester Fair. —

My mother thinks you will be wanting to look over the boxes, and select a portion to be retained.

How is this? I think that, last year, everything went. I intend to be in Boston again on Monday Sept, 14th, when

I will do anything
in my power to aid in looking over &c (if needful) and forwarding the articles. —

Will you have the kindness to give me a line, - at Leicester, Ms. - with any instructions
you may have in the case, and any suggestions for the guidance of the Worcester

Fair.

I am looking out for a room in which
to open the boxes,
I re-pack, if ~~you~~ ~~deem it~~ this work is to be done.

Some time since,
I mentioned to your sister that the subscription on the "Advocate" for 1856-57 (Oct. to Oct.) was
due. So little ^a matter

Aug. 26th 1825
has perhaps escaped her recollection, ~~the~~
- as it has mine in the half-dozen times
I have seen her, since
I spoke to her about it.

- When convenient
the Subscription (75¢)
can be handed to me.

Truly Yrs. with respects to those of your household.
